
THE ROLE OF IMPERSONAL SOCIAL CHARACTER EDUCATION THROUGH SOCIAL STUDIES LEARNING

Muhammad Haekal Nugraha¹, Zahra Nurashifa², Winda Diyanti³, Wahyunengsih⁴
muhammadhaekaln1406@gmail.com¹, za1076946@gmail.com², ikbalsetia02@gmail.com³, wahyu.nengsih@uinjkt.ac.id⁴
UIN Syarif Hidayatullah Jakarta

ABSTRAK

Pendidikan karakter sosial interpersonal (isce) menyoroti peran pksi dalam membentuk siswa untuk berinteraksi secara efektif dengan lingkungannya. Isce bertujuan untuk mengembangkan keterampilan sosial dan emosional seperti kesadaran diri, pengendalian diri, empati, dan komunikasi interpersonal. Melalui isce, siswa dihadapkan pada nilai-nilai seperti kejujuran, toleransi, disiplin, kerja keras dan demokrasi, menumbuhkan karakter yang baik dan berkontribusi terhadap pengembangan masyarakat. Isce juga memberikan dampak positif terhadap kecerdasan interpersonal, meningkatkan kemampuan siswa dalam menciptakan, membangun dan memelihara hubungan dengan orang lain. Menekankan pentingnya mengintegrasikan pendidikan karakter ke dalam pembelajaran ips untuk menanamkan pedoman moral, nilai etika, dan hubungan yang seimbang dengan orang lain. Ringkasnya, isce berperan penting dalam membentuk siswa untuk berinteraksi secara efektif dengan lingkungannya, mengembangkan keterampilan sosial dan emosional, meningkatkan kecerdasan interpersonal, dan mendorong sikap sosial yang positif. Integrasi pendidikan karakter dalam pembelajaran ips sangat penting untuk mengembangkan interaksi sosial dan nilai-nilai etika siswa.

Kata kunci : Pendidikan Karakter, Kejujuran.

ABSTRACT

interpersonal social character education (isce) highlights the role of pksi in forming students to interact effectively with their environment. Isce aims to develop social and emotional skills such as self-awareness, self-control, empathy, and interpersonal communication. Through isce, students are exposed to values such as honesty, tolerance, discipline, hard work, and democracy, cultivating good character and contributing to community development. Isce also has a positive impact on interpersonal intelligence, increasing students' ability to create, build, and maintain relationships with other people. Emphasizes the importance of integrating character education into social studies learning to instill moral guidelines, ethical values, and balanced relationships with other people. In summary, isce plays an important role in shaping students to interact effectively with their environment, developing social and emotional skills, increasing interpersonal intelligence, and encouraging positive social attitudes. The integration of character education in social studies learning is very important to develop students' social interactions and ethical values.

Keywords : Character education, honesty.

INTRODUCTION

Interpersonal social individual schooling (isce) is a critical thing of training that seeks to form college students into folks who can interact successfully with their environment. Isce plays an essential role in developing social and emotional capabilities, inclusive of self-cognizance, self-control, empathy, and interpersonal conversation, which might be vital for constructing sturdy moral compasses and ethical values. By implementing isce, college students can broaden their social attitudes, together with honesty, tolerance, field, hard work, and democracy, which are important for contributing to the development of society.

The function of isce through social studies is to gain knowledge that is especially valuable in shaping students into folks who can engage with their environment efficaciously and successfully. Social research mastering offers a complete platform for developing social and emotional skills, in addition to constructing ethical compasses and moral values. Character education is a strategic effort to guide and direct college students' character development, making sure that it aligns with the expected values and ends in complete studying dreams.

The implementation of isce through social research learning has proven advantageous in forming college students who have exact social attitudes. The integration of personal education into the social research mastering process is essential, and external help from the mother and father is critical in reinforcing this training. The concept of albert bandura, which emphasizes the effect of human attitudes on each other and the surroundings, helps the significance of character schooling in shaping students' social attitudes.

In conclusion, through social research, gaining knowledge is an essential factor of schooling that facilitates forming college students into people who can engage correctly and successfully with their environment. It performs a widespread position in growing social and emotional capabilities, constructing moral compasses and moral values, and forming excellent social attitudes. The integration of man or woman schooling into social studies, getting to know and external support from mother and father is critical in attaining these dreams.

RESEARCH METHODS

The research method used in this research is the literature study method. This method involves collecting library data, reading and taking notes, and managing writing materials. Literature study is a way to solve problems by tracing written sources that have been written before. In this study, researchers searched for research journals published on the internet, with inclusion criteria including the name of the researcher, year of publication of the journal, study design, research objectives, samples, instruments (measuring tools), and a summary of the results or findings. The summary of the research journal is entered into the table sorted alphabetically and by year of publication of the journal and in accordance with the format mentioned above. To further clarify the analysis of the abstract and full text of the journal, read and pay close attention. The journal summary is then analyzed based on the content of the research objectives and research results/findings. The analysis method used uses journal content analysis sequentially from the most relevant, relevant, and quite relevant.

RESULT AND DISCUSSION

Interpersonal social character training (isce) is a training that objectives to shape students into individuals who have the capacity to engage with the surrounding environment successfully and effectively. Isce has a crucial role in supporting students to increase their social and emotional abilities, such as self-focus, self-control, empathy, and interpersonal communication. In this way, isce can assist students in emerging as people who have a sturdy moral compass and moral values and have the capability to build balanced and harmonious relationships with different humans.

Isce also has a great effect on interpersonal intelligence, particularly the capacity to create, build and hold relationships with other human beings. In this research, it becomes observed that scholars who have high interpersonal intelligence are ideally capable of setting up powerful communication with different humans.

The implementation of isce in forming college students' social attitudes also shows superb outcomes. In this research, it became determined that via isce, students have been aware of values inclusive of honesty, tolerance, area, difficult work and democracy. In this way, isce can help students become individuals who top individuals and contribute to the improvement of society.

Isce also can be implemented through extracurricular activities, such as building social capabilities in extracurricular activities. In this research, it changed into determined that extracurricular activities can assist students broaden statement competencies and emerge as responsive and assertive listeners in asking questions.

In synthesis, isce has a critical function in shaping students into individuals who have the potential to interact with the encompassing surroundings successfully and correctly. Isce can help students broaden social and emotional skills and has an awesome impact on interpersonal intelligence and the formation of precise social attitudes.

The position of interpersonal social person schooling through social studies gaining knowledge of is to assist college students into people who have the ability to interact with the surrounding surroundings effectively and efficaciously. Through social studies gaining knowledge of, college students can develop social and emotional talents, along with self-cognizance, willpower, empathy, and interpersonal communicate. Apart from that, interpersonal social person schooling also can help students construct a ethical compass, sturdy ethical values, and the potential to construct balanced and harmonious relationships.

With other human beings. Social research gaining knowledge of has a crucial role in constructing pupil individual. Character education is an attempt to assist in the improvement of the soul to result in a better person (amin, 2021). Character training may be understood as values education, ethical training or individual schooling (zuchdi, 2008). It could be very vital for college students' person to be guided and directed in order to step with what's expected to produce integrity in mastering an effort to reap comprehensive dreams from effective, cognitive, and psychomotor aspects.

Character is a person's character, man or woman, morals, or persona that is fashioned from the internalization of diverse virtues that can be believed to and underlie the individual's angle, wondering mindset, and way of acting. Character is manifested in individual Society and the individual are fashioned from the man or woman of each member of the country's society. Character improvement, or persona development, in contributors to society, theoretically and empirically, is accomplished from an early age until adulthood.

The development of personal education could be very strategic for the sustainability and excellence of the country in the future. This improvement must be carried out with true planning, the best approach, and powerful teaching and learning techniques. In accordance with the character of the value of individual training, it's miles a joint faculty effort and consequently ought to be completed collectively by using all teachers and all subjects, and becomes an inseparable part of college subculture (suyitno 2013). Character education is in keeping with the purpose of social research education, particularly to expand college students into desirable residents who have the knowledge, competencies, and social attention that are beneficial for themselves, society, and the u. S.

Interpersonal social character education via social research (social sciences) has an essential function in forming students who have the potential to interact with the surrounding surroundings. Social studies is predicted to offer a large content of individual schooling due to the fact that ips is able to facilitate students' constructing expertise, beliefs, and affective studies, as well as the potential to carry out interpersonal relationships. Thus, the implementation of the social sciences curriculum in simple training has to be capable of properly shaping students who are able to intelligently choose and observe the values that exist in religion, way of life, kingdom, and country.

Character training has an awesome effect on social attitudes in college students. The getting-to-know approach used in this research is to combine students' characters inside the social research, gaining knowledge of manner. The idea used in this research is albert bandura's concept, which says that human beings in their lives have a mindset of dependence on every other or different humans, as well as in learning, people are motivated plenty by means of the instances around them.

The implementation of man or woman schooling in forming students' social attitudes through integrated social studies studying in magnificence viii d at smpn 1 purwosari additionally suggests fine outcomes. In this research, instructors and faculty principals, as well as external guidance from mothers and fathers, are very critical in forming college students in man or woman training with social studies studying.

In synthesis, interpersonal social man or woman education through social research mastering has an essential role in forming students who can interact with the surrounding environment. The learning strategy used in this research is to integrate students' character within the social research learning technique, and outside help from dad and mom is very important in forming college students in male or female schooling with social research mastering.

CONCLUSION

Interpersonal social character education (isce) plays a pivotal role in shaping students into individuals who are prepared to navigate their environments successfully and ethically. By specializing in social and emotional abilities, isce fosters self-consciousness, empathy, and strong moral values, contributing to the improvement of people with a sturdy ethical compass and the ability to domesticate fantastic relationships. Moreover, isce's effect extends to interpersonal intelligence, improving students' talents to talk successfully and construct significant relationships with others. Through the implementation of isce, college students are exposed to values like honesty, tolerance, and area, fostering the development of appropriate man or woman traits and an experience of obligation towards society. Extracurricular sports integrated with isce similarly enhance college students' statement competencies and responsiveness, contributing to their normal personal improvement and social attitudes. The synergy between isce and social studies is essential because it helps college students broaden their critical social and emotional abilities, shaping them into individuals able to interact harmoniously with their surroundings. In essence, the collaborative efforts of educators, parents, and the faculty community are crucial in enforcing isce correctly and ensuring college students get hold of comprehensive character training. By integrating man or woman training into the instructional framework, students need to be more effectively ready with academic understanding but additionally with the values and skills important to emerge as accountable citizens contributing positively to society.

REFERENCE

- Afandi, rifki, , dan . (desember 2011). Integrasi pendidikan karakter dalam pembelajaran ips di sekolah dasar. : pedagogia
- Albert Bandura – “Teori Pembelajaran Sosial”.
- Amin (2021). “Character Education: A Key to Developing Moral Values in Students”.

- Anna maria oktaviani, (2022, maret), pengaruh kecerdasan emosional terhadap motivasi berprestasi siswa pada mata pelajaran ips sd, vol.03. No.01. Hal 36-48 maret 2022 p-issn : 2530-3891 e-issn : 2721-283
- Natanti, septiaji evi, ida dwijayanti, dan kusen. (mei-agustus 2024). Analisis pengaruh pembelajaran sosial emosional (pse) terhadap karakteristik peserta didik kelas ii di sdn kalicari 01 . Semarang: journal on education.
- Sukmanasa, elly, siti latifah, (2018). Hubungan persepsi tentang kecerdasan interpersonal dengan afektif siswa pada mata pelajaran ilmu pengetahuan sosial di sekolah dasar negeri genteng kota bogor. Bogor: prosiding seminar nasional pendidikan.
- Suyitno (2013). "The Role of Character Education in Shaping Students' Social Attitudes".
- Zuchdi (2008). "Character Education: A Comprehensive Approach to Moral Development".